

Grants in United States

GOAL

Serve as a central repository of various grant programs we can share with the Able Bodied community. This is meant to be an “open source” document, so if you have any funding sources your are aware of, please add them to the appropriate section.

NOTE: Trying to figure out what handcycle to mention in your grant application, check out our handcycle guide.

Take Action Today

Find a Grant on KBF Active Project

The KBF active project has a grant guide portal where you can filter grants by disability, allowable expenses, and other requirements.

Find a Grant on Support Now

Support Now claims to have the largest database of active grants

Build a Campaign on Help Hope Live

Organization that helps you create a tax deductible donation campaign for any medical expenses you may have. They will help guide you through how to fundraise and will give you feedback on your campaigns. Donations will be tax deductible, which is really great (especially after 2026 see blog post).

General Grants

Challenged Athlete Fund

Dates: September to November

Amount: ~$3,000, but they are known to cover the entire cost of Top End handcycles up to $10K

Time to fill out application: October 7 - December 6

NOTE: Supports individuals worldwide

The challenged athlete fund is one of the largest (if not the largest) adaptive sports grant programs with 10s of millions of dollars given out annually. They have one grant cycle per year and are the best to start with as then you have time to apply for the KBF and High Fives grants and stack them all in one year.

High Fives

Dates: Two grant cycles, January-March, July-September

Amount: ~$3,000-$5,000

Time to fill out application: January 1 - 30, July 1 - 30

The high fives is an organization based in Tahoe that initially started funding primarily injured professional athletes, but have since loosened the requirements. They will fund equipment for SCI and TBI survivors injured while doing an outdoor sport or any inertia based injury.

Kelly Brush Grant

Dates: Two grant cycles, Spring (Jan to April) and Fall (July to September)

Amount: $1,500 to $5,000

The Kelly Brush foundation funds millions of dollars of sports equipment yearly. They are active in the Bay Area and have an annual ride up Mt. Tam (where you can meet Kelly in person). Really great people with a great mission

Victoria's Victory

Dates: Three grant cycles

Amount: $1500 - $6000

Time to fill out application: varies, but ~ Jan 1st - 30th, July 1st - 30th, Oct 4th - Nov 3rd

IMPORTANT NOTE: Need to have other funding lined up, they want to turn around funding pretty quickly, might even be less time than High Fives

Victoria's Victory Foundation is an organization founded on the desire to help those with mobility disabilities by providing scholarships and knowledge-based support that empowers individuals to live with dignity and independence.

AdaptX

Dates: 10-5-2026

Amount: ?

Time to fill out application: 10-5-2026 to 11-1-2026

For competitive adaptive athletes of all ages who could benefit from upgrading their equipment. This grant could cover the cost of:

Para/Adaptive Sports Equipment

Go Hawkeye

Dates: Two grant cycles, May 1st and November 1st

Amount: Rarely exceed $5,000

Time to fill out application: Before May 1st and before November 1st

The grant program extends its eligibility to adaptive individuals and organizations across the United States, offering grants for both adaptive sports equipment and adaptive sports experiences. The grant cycle follows a biannual schedule, concluding on May 1 and November 1.
