

Central California Adaptive Sports Center

The Central California Adaptive Sports Center offers a wide range of outdoor adventure programs and lessons for individuals with cognitive and/or physical disabilities, including winter sports like skiing and snowshoeing, and summer activities such as mountain biking, kayaking, and rock climbing. These programs are offered as single-day or weekend-long events, with all necessary recreational equipment and meals provided; while program fees apply, financial aid is available, and Veterans and disabled members of the Armed Forces participate for free.
