

North Carolina Adapted Sports

North Carolina Adapted Sports provides free adapted sports programs, including instructional cycling clinics and wheelchair basketball practices, for individuals with physical disabilities. Participants can learn to ride handcycles and recumbent trikes, including e-assist and electric models, on various terrains from greenways to mountain biking trails, utilizing the organization's equipment at no cost during these clinics and events.

Info

Offers lessons	✓
Rent a handcycle	✓
Handcycle events	✓
Sells handcycles
Primary website	https://ncadaptedsports.org/
Handcycle webpage	link
e-mail	Wes@ncadaptedsports.org
Social

Is anything inaccurate? Modify or update this information with this form

Available Handcycles

Bowhead Rogue 	Style: Delta Off-road Has e-assist option Has Suspension Offroad capable
--	---

Pricing Info

All adapted sports equipment, clinics, and coaching are provided at no cost. Admission to their cycling clinics and events, including the use of their adapted cycles, is free.

